- 107 Laurent-Perrier Brut N.V. 49.00

- 104 Veuve Clicquot Brut, Yellow Label N.V. 65.00
Instantly recognisable with its yellow label and a dramatic expression of the House style of one of the giants of Champagne. Blended from over fifty Crus from throughout the region it contains up to 30% Chardonnay. This gives the wine its light elegance and well focussed fruity structure. The addition of a splash of vintage reserve allows it to hint at the complexity of its stable mates.
- 108 Laurent-Perrier Vintage 1999/2000 65.00
Only produced during the very best years, L-P vintages combine the house style of purity and elegance with a quintessential character particular to the year. Simply delicious.
- 103 Bollinger Brut, Special Cuvée N.V. 69.00
Iconic wine from this House of global renown, based in Ay. The Special Cuvée is the classic expression of the house style. A Pinot Noir dominated blend whose extended maturation on its lees ensures a complexity of flavour and its signature nose of toasted biscuit. Still in family hands after 200 years and never at the whim of fads and fashion the House maintains a loyal following, especially in the UK.
- 109 Laurent-Perrier Ultra Brut N.V. 72.00
This delicate champagne is essentially in its purest form as it is made without the addition of the sugar dosage found in most champagne. Ultra Brut can only be made in years when the grapes are at optimum ripeness with a good balance of acidity and natural sugar. Refined & lovely.

- 135 Laurent-Perrier Cuvée Rosé N.V. 90.00

This gives it its unique and highly expressive bouquet, extraordinary depth and freshness and d elicious red berry flavours. Gorgeous in the extreme.*
- 110 Grand Siècle by Laurent-Perrier N.V. 150.00
The epitome of Champagne blending, Grand Siècle by Laurent-Perrier calls on wines from the finest growths and the very best harvests. Flavours of honey, caramel and sour apple are harmoniously balanced with a touch of acidity and this one comes in size perfect for parties!

Flavours of white peach, honey and roasted nuts blend harmoniously to create a complex dry wine with a refreshing acidity. The house of Ruggeri has an excellent reputation in the premier region for Prosecco, Valdobbiadene, which is famed for the quality of its wines with ripe fruit and a fine mousse.
- 630 Stanlake Park Heritage Brut N.V. 38.50
A delicious English sparkler from Twyford, Berkshire made in the traditional Champagne method.
- 100 Ice Cuvée Sparkling, Peller Family Estates N.V. 46.00
Very fine bubbles spiral upwards, through this brilliant yellow straw-coloured wine. The bouquet of apricot, yeast and ripe apple, with hints of honey, are followed by tropical fruits on the palate and a refreshing sweet grapefruit finish. Absolutely gorgeous and completely unique.

- 313 Nuits St. Georges, Domaine Lecheneaut 2004 75.50
The wines of Nuits St Georges are considered to be among the richest and most robust of the Côte de Nuits. This wine has nicely evolved fruit, voluptuous tannins and a long, elegant finish despite the characteristic earthy and smoky notes of the appellation.
- 314 Volnay, 1er Cru 'Clos des Chenes', Charles Thomas 2002 **51.00**
*The southern-most red wine only village on the Cote de Beaune. The epitome of an elegant Volnay with a classic 'farmyard' bouquet and deep vermilion in colour. ## BORDEAUX

Red

- 436 Château La Gatte Tradition Rouge, Bordeaux 2006 27.00

Situated south of St Julien the estate has undergone extensive modernisation and it shows in the wine. An attractive purity of flavour packed with cassis and cedar notes heralds a long, expansive finish.*
- 417 Château Cissac Cru Bourgeois Haut Medoc 2000 54.00
This Cissac, a very traditionally styled Haut Medoc from the commune of Moulis, is a perfect example of the miracle of the Millenium. Early summer was a cold washout with doom and gloom predicted. August and September were cloudless and dry. The results are here for all to see. A glorious deep colour from fully ripened fruit, heady scents of forest fruits mingled with new oak and well sheathed tannins. The discreet acidity making it almost Californian in its intensity.

BORDEAUX

Red

414 Château Cantemerle, 5eme Cru Haut Medoc 1997 60.00

In existence since 1575 Cantemerle is deservedly popular in Britain. Not a rampant blockbuster it has the elegance of a Margaux allied to a supple fruitiness due to a high proportion of Merlot (40%), unusual in a Medoc. The '97 has a good deep colour, sweet berry fruit and a discreet tannic frame all of which are the hallmarks of a traditional Claret of breeding and class when produced in an underrated vintage such as 1997.

444 Château Beychevelle, 5eme Cru St Julien 2003 110.00

We make no apology for offering his classic St Julien still wet behind the ears, to some tastes! 2003 was an atypical year in Bordeaux where the very hot weather was a challenge to all winemakers. This Beychevelle was a triumph because its natural, plump suppleness was perfect for the conditions. A deep, richly coloured Cabernet dominated blend. More approachable than other years, it is already seductive but will grow and develop, with a little bottle age, to be even more glorious!

GERMANY

- 200 Dr 'L' Riesling Mosel 2008 26.00
From steep vineyards above the river Mosel, a dynamic wine produced by one of the regions foremost producers. Classic mineral and lime flavours with floral and pear-drop aromas. A well developed acidity gives the wine a lovely dry and balanced finish. A great aperitif or excellent with seafood.

THE RHONE VALLEY, LANGUEDOC AND THE SOUTH OF FRANCE

White

- 721 Chateau Neuf du Pape Blanc Clos de L'Oratoire des Papes 2003 42.00
A timeless classic from one of the choicest plots in the town! The Clos de L'Oratoire des Papes has been the jewel in the crown for producers, Ogiers, for many years. Blended, mainly from Grenache blanc and Roussane, the wine is golden in colour with a crisp, dry zestiness. Intense floral and honeyed notes combine to make it a delicious, weighty wine.
- 703 Condrieu 'La Petite Cote', Domaine Cuilleron 2005 69.50
The Viognier is shy – small cropping and difficult to cultivate. The style is unique, wonderfully concentrated with the scent of apricots and fresasias. Given time to warm in the glass, the flavours develop and tease the palate. If you are tired of Burgundy give this a go.

Red

- 737 Chateau Camplazens Marselan, Coteaux de Languedoc 2006 26.50
A dazzling display of wine making, a blend of Cabernet and Grenache from an English owned estate on the coast near Narbonne. Its sheer exuberance and drinkability are overwhelming. Full bodied with lots of dark berry fruit, pepper and spice. Low yields and organic viticulture help make this a standout wine and worthy of the many awards it has won.
- 712 Cotes du Rhone, 'Le Ponnant' La Ferme du Mont 2005 30.00
This classic 'comfort' wine is sourced from vineyards around Rasteau and Gigondas. The Brain-child of exciting new producer, Stephane Verdeau and his obsession for Grenache. Its dark purple colour invites you into a spice and wild herb bouquet stacked with voluptuous jammy fruit flavours. This accentuates the subtle minerality, a sure sign of old vines. Peppery tannins well framed by a nice acidity complete the picture very harmoniously

Situated on almost the same latitude as Burgundy, the cool maritime climate of Oregon produces a most individual Pinot Noir. A deep toned and concentrated bouquet offers aromas of plum and dark cherries, linked by the classic Pinot smokiness. Fruit flavours are laced with chocolate and mint spices. The extra ripeness ensures that the wine lingers to a sanded tannin memory.
- 252 Lytton Springs, Ridge Vineyards, Dry Creek Valley Magnum 2006 115.00
A classic, benchmark Zinfandel from Paul Draper at Ridge. The house style is more restrained than the Ravenswood with a deep, vivid ruby red colour and densely smooth berry flavours. This is complimented by a glorious cassis and bitter cherry minerality. Subtle candied pastille and liquorice notes complete the picture. A dose of Petite Sirah and Carignane add structure to the Zinfandel and ensure it will age beautifully.

LEBANON

- 452 Chateau Musar, Bekaa Valley 2001 56.00
A wine worthy of its world wide reputation. An exotic blend of Cabernet and cinsault which captures the sun baked feel of its home. Aromatic, fragrant, warm and mellow, with a palate of cherries, strawberries and redcurrants combined with soft tannins.

White

- 800 Simonsig, Chenin Blanc, Stellenbosch 2009 24.50
A full bodied and intensely flavoured Chenin Blanc. The bouquet exhibits the ripe floral and pear-drop flavours associated with the variety. A hint of residual sugar balances its refreshing acidity perfectly.
- 801 Sauvignon Blanc, Nabygelegen, Wellington 2008 29.00
Night harvesting and strict temperature control during fermentation accentuates the flinty dryness of this wine This counterbalances the subtle citrus and green apple notes. Matured on its lees for an extra creamy finish.

Red

- 803 'Scaramanga', Nabygelegen, Wellington 2007 27.00
An exotic blend that works bizarrely well! Cabernet, Merlot, Malbec and Tempranillo all jostle for space and all bring something to the party. Aromas of cassis and plums are aided and abetted by leather and spice.
- 805 Pinotage, Simonsig, Stellenbosch 2005 29.00
Pinotage is a crossing of Pinot Noir with Cinsault and a native to South Africa. This Pinotage is unwooded and the aim is to accentuate the raspberry fruitiness of the Pinotage grape unobscured by wood. It works particularly well with lamb and aromatic dishes. One of Simonsig's specialities!
- 807 Syrah, Jordan Vineyards, Stellenbosch 2004 31.50
A soft and very accessible Syrah from the granite hillside vineyards of Stellenbosch. Generous, warm and rounded, it displays convincing spicy, smoky and gamey notes which add to its supple ripeness. A few years of bottle age completes this very attractive offering from one of the leading family Wineries of the Cape.

Red

- 804 Frans Malan Reserve, Simonsig, Stellenbosch 2004 45.00
This Pinotage-dominated blend has won a sack full of awards at home and abroad. Full-bodied and firmly established as a benchmark Pinotage and one of the finest wines from the Cape.

After seven years of bottle age the tannins have loosened up sufficiently to display the fruit in all its glory. Classic, fully ripened cassis and cigar box flavours with just a hint of warm red brick colour on the rim.*

- 823 Corinto Reserve Pinot Noir, Maule Valley 2007 27.50
This is a great example of how exuberant Pinot Noir can be when allowed to express itself. The merest whiff of woodsmoke compliments the raspberry, cherry and subtle liquorice notes. A brief encounter with oak imparts some vanilla spice but nothing too much to subdue the rather racy finish.

On the palate these flavours are carried through and combine with a great acidity and lengthy finish.*

Dark burgundy coloured wine with well balanced fruits and tannins with oak from ageing in French and American barrels.
- 840 Colomé Estate Malbec 2007 34.50
